24-Aug-11 23:08 | JaimeVanderG

#3rdchat Hi everyone..I'm late. We are experiencing tornado watches and warnings. Haven't started school yet...still working on the class.

@ladyhello I LOVE Projects--parent help can sometimes be an issue... #3rdchat

24-Aug-11 23:11 | TRockR

#3rdchat We have a home reading program. Kids borrow books at their independent level. Expected to read nightly out loud 15 min.

24-Aug-11 23:11 | MrsMcV

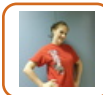

#3rdchat I'm looking at using more "technology" for homework...i.e. post a response to your kidblog about your homereading book.

24-Aug-11 23:11 | MrsMcV

@JaimeVanderG Will students HAVE to do edmodo the night it is assigned, or will they have a couple night--ie tech issue at home. #3rdchat

24-Aug-11 23:12 | TRockR

@MrsMcV reading is expected nightly for us too! #3rdchat

24-Aug-11 23:12 | JaimeVanderG

Yes, we do 20 minutes of independent reading. RT @JaimeVanderG: @MrsMcV reading is expected nightly for us too! #3rdchat

24-Aug-11 23:14 | JaimeVanderG

@JaimeVanderG So the students will have 4 questions/week to answer by Friday. I am envisioning this for my class blog as well. #3rdchat

24-Aug-11 23:17 | MrsMcV

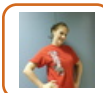

@ladyhello AR is a strictly incentive program at our school. Can't be tied to grades... #3rdchat

24-Aug-11 23:18 | TRockR

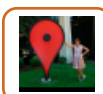

I'd love to use more tech, specifically edmodo for homework but not all students can access internet :(#3rdchat

24-Aug-11 23:19 | jmsalsich

@ladyhello we set goals as well and have the same issues with over achievers and less than interested kiddos! #3rdchat

24-Aug-11 23:19 | lindsayollis

24-Aug-11 23:20 | ladyhello
